You are an owner of a grocery store—along with lots of your friends.

The past few years have been a journey in finding the perfect location for our community. It is our pleasure to announce that after diligently searching and much consideration, we've secured the ideal location.

This milestone marks a significant step towards opening our co-op for our community. Your support and dedication have fueled our growth, and together we've built a stronger foundation. Memberships are on the rise showcasing the enthusiasm for what the future holds for our co-op. Let's continue this positive momentum as we enter into this exciting new chapter.

Thank you for being an integral part of our co-op family.

We're continually looking for passionate individuals to join the board of directors. Your insight and commitment are invaluable in shaping the future of our co-op. Let's work together in creating a team to lead our community to a successful opening. Please reach out via email with a resume if you want to be a part of the board in a pivotal time in the co-ops history. Apply soon as there are a limited number of spots available. We look forward to having the opportunity to work with our talented members.
